Patty Diphusa is a porn star. Her dream of reaching fame and glory is suddenly realized one day when she is offered her own reality TV show. That's her opportunity to share her unique experiences with her audience. Through her wild and juicy stories the nightlife of the big vibrating city is revealed... full of sex, drugs and lonely people searching for excitement, love, meaning and too often, glamour. Patty Diphusa, like many of Pedro Almodovar's characters, is a fringe character used by the director to reflect on the diversity of human nature, whilst simultaneously evoking our sympathy and compassion.
