

Social Security

By Andrew Bergman

Play: 609

Opening: 8/11/2007

Translated and Adapted by Reshef and Regev Levi

Director: Alon Ophir

Set Design: Yossi Ben-Ari

Costume Design: Oren Dar

Music Editor: Jeremy Kaplan

Lighting: Meir Alon

CAST

Yogev Neufeld, art gallery owner: Adir Miller

Mika Neufeld, his wife: Osnat Fishman

Gila Cohen, Mika's sister: Orna Rotberg

Ami Cohen, Gila's husband: Pini Kidron

Hayuta Ben Yehuda, the mother of Mika and Gila: Dvora Kedar

Dov Dubinchik, a famous painter: Avraham Mor

The life of Yogev and Mika, trendy Tel Aviv art gallery owners, is upended when Mika's sister Gila 'deposits' their eccentric mother Hayuta on the couple's doorstep. Until now, Hayuta lived with Gila and her husband in the country, and her arrival marks changes in all of their lives. Hayuta's life too, upon the introduction to a suave nonagenarian painter, who begins to brighten her life in ways she never expected.