Helge, the patriarch of a chain of restaurants, is celebrating his sixtieth birthday and everyone is coming home for the party – including Helge’s sons, Christian, Michael, and his daughter Helene. Missing from the roster of invitees is Christian’s twin sister, Linda, who recently committed suicide. The reason for her action and the repercussions from it, form the basis of the shocking and painful events that transpire during this twenty-four hour period. In the midst of dinner, Christian makes a startling accusation and, even as the disbelieving guests are choosing sides, the play slowly unwraps the truth.
