The biblical musical tells the story of Joseph, Jacobs favoured son. This story take place in ancient Egypt. Joseph, betrayed by his jealous brothers, was sold to the Ishmaelys and taken to Egypt. There he became head consultant to the king Pharoah. His brothers immigrated to Egypt because of the drought. They met Josef, and the family were reunited once more. Camels, schemes, love stories and dreams make for one of the best bible stories, which has become one of the world's favourite musicals.
