

The Indian Patient

By Reshev and Regev Levi

Play: 661

Opened: 21/11/12

Director & Musical Editor: Alon Ophir

Set Designer: Bambi Friedman

Costumes: Oren Dar

Lighting: Keren Granek

Cast

Sergev Hisdai: Ido Bartal

Avshalom Hisdai, his brother: Nati Ravitz

Eliyahou Hisdai, his father: Dov Reiser/Shmil Ben-Ari/Nathan Nathanson/Uri Avrahami

Dalia Hisdai, his mother: Davit Gavish

As his father lies on his death bed, Segev, a young man of twenty, embarks on a journey to find his older brother whom he has never met. He finds his brother – Avshalom, and unusual ties are formed between them, initially from a quarrel, and anger, and then due to difficult life circumstances, which force them to get to know one another. In an entertaining, funny and moving journey, they discover the truth about one another, about their father, and about Segev's mother.