Ten singers and actors, live orchestra on stage, director and composer, embark on an extraordinary journey with Dan Almagor, and together create a new adaptation to the colourful, ever relevant and mythological production of Ish Hassid Haya. An exciting, funny and suprising journey, full of wisdom and the love of mankind. The play binds together stories, famous songs loved by many, new ones, written especially for this new production, dances and anecdotes based on the Hassidic way of life: simple people who believed in the importance of inner happiness, love of all men, justice and peace.
