In a world where people are measured by who they trample, where one person's sense of worth is created by the inferiority of another - Hefetz is at the bottom of the food chain. When Fogra gets married and no one bothers to tell Hefetz, it sets off a chain of events that will determine who is happy and who is miserable. This is a series of power games between those who humiliate and those humiliated that will ultimately lead to the inevitable, exposing human existence in all its misery.
