

Shustermann

By: Noam Gil

Play no.773

Opening show: 1/12/2023

Director: Tamar Keenan

Set Design: Adam Keller

Lighting Design: Matan Preminger

Music: Daphna Keenan

Costume Design: Yael Skidelsky

Movement: Tal Cohn

Cast

Prosper Keinan: Ami Smolarchik

Hani Keinan: Yael Levental

Professor Avishai Keinan: Ben Yosipovich

Naomi: Naomi Harari

Eliran: Shefi Marziano

Adina: Liat Goren

The Play

Prosper and Hani are preparing for another peaceful evening of Sudoku and Netflix at their home in the sleepy town of Kiryat Motzkin, when an enigmatic young woman, a hurricane named Naomi, sweeps them into a wild night of theft, passion, mystery, and murder. Over the course of the night, they'll encounter a variety of suspicious and quirky characters: the dedicated Professor Avishai Keinan, the handsome and foolish hummus guy Eliran, and their neighbor Adina, who, despite her advanced age, is still very much alive and kicking. Prosper and Hani will need to figure out who's who, who's against who, why, who is Shustermann, and most importantly – who murdered him? When dawn breaks, Kiryat Motzkin will no longer be the same...